

David Walliams

Ratburger

Armitage

'HE WAS A RAT.

Children don't have rats as pets. They have cats and dogs and hamsters and gerbils and guinea pigs and mice and rabbits and terrapins and tortoises, posh ones even sometimes have ponies, but never rats.'

Write a poem about an unusual pet.