

JOIN THE STARS

In the picture below there are three groups of stars, called constellations, that have the shape of an animal. Join the stars below to show each of the animals clearly.

Now it is your turn. Think of an object (like a spoon) or another animal (like a rabbit) that would make a good constellation. Outline the object or animal by drawing stars on this grid.

Ask one of your friends to join the stars on your grid.